Vehicle Fire Thought to be Arson

Raytown, Missouri - Police and Fire Department investigators in Raytown are looking into the suspicious origins of a fire that destroyed a pickup truck in the driveway of a home in the 6500 block of Englewood during the early morning hours of this past Tuesday (05/03/2011). A spokesman from the Police Department said that fire investigators had ruled out any source of accidental ignition. A motive has not been determined and investigators had no comment about possible suspect identities. Police would like help from any member of the public that might have information about the incident. Such persons are asked to call the CrimeStoppers hotline at 474-TIPS (8477) with any information.
